

Junior Years : Wiry Athlete

Students in Junior Years talked about the sports being played in the Commonwealth Games. They took turns to pose as athletes in action while their partners drew simple outlines of them. They then used armature wires to go around the outline, glued it on to a piece of cardboard and completed the artwork by gluing appropriate apparatus and background for the sport of their choice.

